

Korean Conflict

Sept. 16, 1950

Troops of the 31st Infantry Regiment, 7th Infantry Division, prepare to disembark from a landing ship anchored in Inchon Harbor. The landings at Inchon — some 25 miles behind enemy lines — was a gamble that paid off for the U.N. forces.